

Nathan Santiago Martin del Campo Chung

Software Engineering Student | Passionate about Technology & Business | Bilingual
(Spanish/English)

 Guadalajara, Jalisco, México

nathanchung144@gmail.com

+52 33 4209 7148

About

I am a motivated and proactive Software Engineering student with strong interests in technology, business, and software development. I have an upper-intermediate level of English, which allows me to work in multicultural environments. My background combines hands-on experience in administration, customer service, and project management, giving me a solid foundation to face new challenges.

I consider myself honest, responsible, and empathetic, with a constant drive to learn and grow both professionally and personally.

Experience

Administrative Assistant

Auto Parts Business – Guadalajara, Jalisco

Sep 2022 – Nov 2022

- Managed merchandise reception and organization.
- Supported payment registration and bookkeeping.
- Assisted in warehouse review and order.

Aluminum Installer (Personal Project)

Vertical Development – Guadalajara, Jalisco

May 2023 – Sep 2023

- Oversaw full project management from start to completion.
 - Built strong client relationships through direct interaction.
-

Education

Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara

Bachelor's in Software Engineering

Jan 2024 – Present

Skills

- Software Development (in progress)
- Project Management
- Business Administration
- Customer Service
- English (Intermediate)